

New Online Resource for Victims Navigating Post-Conviction Justice:

The Post-Conviction Survivor Online Resource Center (PCRC)

www.pcrc-survivors.org

A project of Healing Justice, with support from the National Center for Victims of Crime (NCVC) and funded by the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC)

Need Help Now?

VictimConnect Hotline:
1-855-4-VICTIM (1-855-484-2846)

Live chat & more:
victimconnect.org

Get Involved / Learn More

Email: connect@healingjusticeproject.org

Follow: @healingjusticeproject

Visit: www.pcrc-survivors.org

What is the PCRC?

The PCRC is a new, mobile-friendly website offering a safe place for all victims and survivors of crime to find the information and support they deserve following a conviction.

- Trusted, up-to-date information about post-conviction case activity and victims' rights in every state
- Direct connection to a trained victim assistance specialist through VictimConnect
- Downloadable emotional health resources and guides
- Safe, private, and secure access to support

Why It Matters

Victims and survivors of crime often feel confused, unsupported, or retraumatized during post-conviction case activity. The PCRC aims to:

- Reduce anxiety and trauma
- Help victims understand their rights
- Provide personalized help navigating complex legal processes
- Ensure that no one faces post-conviction alone

What the PCRC Offers

- ✓ State-by-state guides to post-conviction laws and the application of victims' rights
- ✓ "EmpowerKit" with emotional health guides and additional wellness resources
- ✓ Live support via NCVC's VictimConnect Hotline
- ✓ Referral network of post-conviction victim service providers
- ✓ Inclusive digital access tools
- ✓ Training tools for victim advocates on how best to use the PCRC